

Fanija Ivanovska, Junior project assistant

fiv@mcms.mk

+389 2 3065 381

Fanija Ivanovska works as a junior project assistant in the development department. She was born in 28.3.1991 at Skopje. She graduated on the Faculty of Law “Iustinianus Primus” at the University of “Ss. Cyril and Methodius” in Skopje. At this moment she is in the final stage of her master studies at the department “International public law and international relations” at the same faculty. Her activities in MCIC began as a volunteer in September 2015, and from December 2015 she is a regular employee. The focus of her work is supporting the refugees and refugee crisis in Macedonia.