Annual Report 2004

Natasha Gaber-Damjanovska

The beginning of the year was marked by the tragedy in which was lost the life of Mr. Boris Trajkovski, President of the Republic of Macedonia and his co-workers. This was an immense loss for Macedonia and civil society. With the loss of Mr. Boris Trajkovski, the Macedonian Centre of International Cooperation (MCIC) lost a long-term supporter and friend. Precisely because of that, it is MCIC's special honor to receive, together with Boris Trajkovski (postmortem) the "Epistle from Mother Theresa" recognition which is awarded by the organization "Mother Theresa of Skopje".

Despite the tragedy, Macedonia moved from stabilization towards EU integration. EU membership candidacy was submitted on March 22, 2004 in Dublin.

In 2004 the Macedonian Centre for International Cooperation entered the second decade of its existence. This was an occasion for reflection on achievements in the previous period, through long-term external evaluation, as basis for facing imminent challenges.

In 2004 the Macedonian Centre for International Cooperation had total scope (portfolio) of 94 projects and budget of approximately 80 million Denars. The Macedonian Centre for International Cooperation had good portfolio implementation. In this period the tendency continued for increased activities in advocacy and capacity building (training).

This year of 2004 was marked by regular elections for the governing structures of MCIC – Council and Executive Board. Mirko Spiroski who was President of the Executive Board ever since MCIC's establishment in 1993 withdrew and Natasa Gaber – Damjanovska was elected the new President.

Reduction of the support from the Consortium for Macedonia caused increased activities for mobilization of funds from other sources (mainly EU).

Cooperation with many different partners which is one of the MCIC's main characteristics this period was capitalized with the formalization of two structures: Civic Platform of Macedonia and Balkan Civil Society Development Network. Cooperation with known partners proved useful in mobilization of resources.

WATER SUPPLY AND SANITATION FOR THE COMMUNITIES (VSZ)

The goal of the program is to provide access to drinking water and drainage of wastewaters.

The target group of the program includes inhabitants from the communities in Macedonia, with a specific focus on the regions that have significant problems in water supply and sanitation.

In the course of 2004, there were 9 projects approved for improvement of the water supply of 9 villages, where there are 10,660 inhabitants. MCIC provided funds for construction, completion or reconstruction of: two pump stations, 514 m³ of tank space (1 tank), one catchment, one filter for water purification, and 15,954 m of pipeline.

The total value of the approved projects, without the operation expenses, amounted to MKD 45,489,977. MCIC participated with MKD 25,088,313, or around 55%.

Healthy Drinking Water Now Available For Dragomance

The village of Dragomance is in the municipality of Staro Nagoricane, located on the left bank of the river Pcinja, 25 km from the city of Kumanovo, and 5 km from the municipal centre. "The idea and initiatives for the construction of the water supply system in Dragomance started ten years ago. But, the work stopped. Now, thanks to the Macedonian Centre for International Co-operation, the government of RM, that is the Bureau for Economically Underdeveloped Areas, the Embassy of Norway, Norwegian Church Aid, local community, villagers and everybody else who helped in the construction of the system, Dragomance finally has healthy drinking water." Said Vlaste Dimkovik, the mayor of the municipality of Staro Nagoricane.

So far, there has been no organized system of water supply. The population used the water of several shallow wells where the water was bacteriologically polluted, while the available quantities drastically dropped in the summer period when the population needs were the biggest.

Solution To Water Problem United All Inhabitants Od Skudrinje

At the end of the summer, the inhabitants of the village of Skudrinje (municipality of Rostuse) could breathe, because the times without water were over. This required a really complicated endeavor, with the participation of the state, civil and busi-

While the larger group of people moved to the place where the new pipeline was going to be open, which was going to bring bigger quantities of water to Skudrinje, the comments of the locals were mainly about the line that had to be dug. And really, the line is impressive. The new springs are on Bistra mountain, in the vicinity of the village of Galicnik, at 1,340 meters above the sea level. The water travels 6,700 m to reach the inhabitants of Skudrinje. The problem is not only the length, but also the accessibility of the field where the pipeline was supposed to be placed, which is indeed poor.

There are around 3,100 inhabitants in Skudrinje. The village, divided in neighborhoods, used the water from the old water supply line, but when the quantities would significantly drop, they used the village fountains. "It's very hard where there's no water." Says my collocutor Rusteme Bilali whom I found washing clothes at one of the neighborhood fountains. "You'll spend the whole day at the fountain and there's no time for other tasks around the house." Rusteme is 54 years old and she has raised seven children. She could hardly wait for the civilization advantages so that she does not worry about water any more.

At the end of the celebration, the Director of the Water Fund of the Republic of Macedonia gave a washing machine to the Initiative Board. The Initiative Board has decided to give the washing machine to their fellow villager Mugnija Musliu who is unemployed and can barely cover for the basic needs of his nine children.

ENABLING THE COMMUNITIES AND INSTITUTIONS (OZI)

Annual Report 2004

TRAINING FOR MUNICIPAL ADMINISTRATION IN THE REPUBLIC OF MACEDONIA

The goal of the program is to enable the communities and institutions to organize and manage development initiatives

Target group of the program are the citizens of the communities and institutions in Macedonia, by focusing on the regions with significant problems with water supply and sanitation.

In 2004, there were 316 participants of the communities and citizen associations covered by the organized training, workshops, advice and consultations for preparations, organizing and implementation of projects. Two public communal enterprises were covered with exchange experience; a public communal enterprise and one association of communal enterprises were provided technical and operational support, ad 2,852 citizens of 6 communities (villages) were supported with pre-project activities (there was technical documentation prepared in 4 villages and there were wells made in 2 villages).

"With this project cycle management training (RPC) we are starting the series of 10 trainings that should be implemented in the coming months. We did not reach the decision to organize such type of training for the needs of the administration in the local self-government by accident. In the surveys of the employees in the municipalities, almost everywhere it was said that such training was supposed to be organized much earlier, 7-8 years ago." Said Dusica Perisik, the Executive Director of the Association of the Local Self-Government Units of the Republic of Macedonia (ZELS) at the two-day training from 19-20 February, at Kontinental hotel in Skopje. There were representatives of 12 municipalities participating at this training.

One of the participants at the training in Skopje, Silvana Tolevska, Head of the Expert Service of the municipality of Makedonski Brod, said: "This should've been organized much earlier, several years ago, when we had big needs of preparing projects. But, it is good that we finally will have the theory of RPC. To tell you the truth, my municipality has been quite active in project preparation. From our practice, we have learnt to prepare projects. When we would be refused, we would correct what was not good in our application and in our project. So, we slowly started to learn how to work on preparation of projects."

From theatre play "Prolet"

Spring Comes For All

"Spring" is a theatre play with ecological-educational character, performed by the student of the "Krste Misirkov" primary school from Kumanovo.

"In short, the children degrade and destroy the environment in many different ways. But, spring comes and help them wake up, and they agree among themselves how to overcome their bad habits." explained Nikola Stojanov, a teacher of "Krste Misirkov" primary school.

Nedzmedin Bajramovski and Sevgjun Sakirovski are students of sixth grade and they play bandits that break everything in front of them. "We are the bad boys of the play and we do not allow for spring to come. But, be change to good and we take care of the environment, and spring itself helps us a lot in that." Explained Nedzmedin and Sevgjun. They are both participants at the summer camp in Ohrid that is organized within the program Applied Education for Young Roma. As they told us, they would happily participate again, in order to have new knowledge and new friendships, and their big wish is to continue the education in high schools.

"I play the spring. When I show up, I persuade the bad boys to love spring and nature and I manage in that. I like when we all spend time together. The theatre play and the summer camp are a nice place to develop our friendship." Said Ana Jovanovska, also a student of sixth grade.

"Since this program is active, there have been changes with young Roma in our schools. They are more regular in classes, and they are motivated by various activities and they spend time with all children of other nationality." Added teacher Stojanov.

The only goal of the caravan was the presentation of the credit lines and other type of support of small and medium enterprises.

"So far, there was a significant geographic misbalance of the usage of the loans for small and medium enterprises." Stressed Saso Klekovski, MEDF representative. "With the implementation of this project, we want to come closer to the entrepreneurs of all regions in Macedonia and see what problems they are facing when looking for or using loans."

According to the Minister of Economy Stevce Jakimovski, the development of small and medium enterprises is very important to every society. In the western countries, they participate with 60 percent in the overall economy of the country. Without successful small and medium enterprises there can be no successful big enterprises. He was a part of this body ever since the establishing of MCIC and with his personal engagement he has significantly contributed towards the development of MCIC and consequently towards the development of the civil society in general. The citizens' associations have many times pointed out the need of affirmation of the principle of replacebility not only in their own lines but also in the entire country.
